To the Minister for Health:

That the NSW Government considers amending the Mental Health Act 2007 in order to:

1. Expressly state that in determining whether to schedule a mentally ill patient pursuant to s.14 (1)(a), the term 'for the person's own protection from serious harm', should be understood to include the harm caused by the mental illness itself.
2. Expressly state that in determining to schedule a mentally ill patient pursuant to s. 14(1)(a), the term for the protection of others from serious harm should be understood to include for the protection of others from serious emotional harm.

3. Delete reference to physical harm in s. 15(a) and (b) and to specify that the term for the persons own protection from serious harm, should be taken to include the harm caused by the mental illness itself, and the term for the protection of others form serious harm should be understood to include for the protection of others from serious emotional harm.
4. Ensure that there is no ambiguity in Part 1(1) of Schedule 1 as to the test that must be met before a patient is scheduled in accordance with the Act.

That NSW Health design and distribute an information booklet setting out advice (that includes an emphasis on the availability of community treatment orders) for families, carers and friends seeking to support persons suffering from a mental illness/disorder, who have been threatened by or are fearful of a person who may be suffering a mental illness/disorder.
